Part I. General Scope

Description of the Scope

The Export-Import Bank of India (hereafter Exim Bank, or the Bank), on behalf of the Government of India (GOI), extends from time-to-time, concessional credit facilities (hereinafter referred to as “Line of Credit”) under the Indian Development and Economic Assistance Scheme (IDEAS) to overseas governments / their nominated agencies (Borrower or Employer), for financing projects to be executed by Indian entities.

These Lines of Credit are governed by the Guidelines issued by the GOI from time-to-time. As per the extant guidelines issued vide letter No. 21/3/2015-IDEAS dated December 7, 2015, the Bank is required to invite Expression of Interest from Indian entities and carry out a prequalification exercise and provide a list of prequalified entities to the Borrower for invitation of bids for specific contract packages under the project(s) financed by the Line(s) of Credit.

In pursuance of the above and to create a database of potential companies/entities (entity) having experience in Preparation and/or Evaluation of Detailed Project Reports (DPRs) in a particular Sector, the Bank is seeking applications for continuous empanelment of Consultants for Preparation and/or Evaluation of Detailed Project Reports (DPRs) in the broad sectorial headings (illustrative, not exhaustive) of:

- Agriculture (including crop improvement, research stations, supply of tractors and farm equipment);
- Civil construction (including housing, hospitals, etc.);
- Fisheries (including pisciculture, cold storage);
- Health and Pharma (including setting up, operation and management of tertiary/specialty hospitals; supply, installation and commissioning of medical equipment/devices/plants and related services, etc.);
- Industrial Projects (sugar, cement, food processing, textile, automotive, waste management, etc.);
- Information Technology (IT parks/centres/systems, optical fibre networks, etc.);
- Irrigation (including micro/drip irrigation, canals, etc.);
- Mining and Mining Equipment;
- Power Generation (thermal, hydro);
- Power Transmission and Distribution (including rural electrification);
- Renewable Energy (including solar, wind, bio-gas);
- Telecom (Microwave Links, V-SAT Terminals, optical fibre networks);
- Transportation [Roads & Highways; Railways (including track laying, route construction, signalling, locomotives and rolling stock); etc.]
- Services such as software development, Information Technology Enabled Services (ITES) , Vocational Training;

- Water and Sanitation (including desalination, sewerage, water treatment and purification, storage and distribution)

The DPR/ Feasibility Study should, at the minimum, cover the following areas:

- The social, economic and technical rationale of the proposed project;
- Identification of land for the proposed project, as well as details of access/right to way to the site;
- A detailed cost break-up along with detailed justification under each head;
- Requirement and availability of raw materials and intermediate inputs as well as utilities like water, electricity, etc.;
- Requirement and availability of skilled and unskilled manpower;
- Environment impact, assessment and resettlement of populace (if necessary);
- Suitability of the proposed equipment and specifications thereof;
- Availability of the major project components from Indian entities, along with the names of established and reputed Indian suppliers;
- Financial and technical feasibility of the proposed project;
- Benefits to the country of domicile and the locality of the project;
- Any other comments or suggestions.

Consultancy firms may seek to be empanelled in one or multiple sectors by indicating their interest in being empanelled for:

- DPR preparation;
- DPR evaluation;
- Both preparation and evaluation of DPRs.

The Applicants are hereby informed that in case an empanelled consultant undertakes the assignment for preparation of DPR and/or evaluation of DPR, such a consultant may not be able to participate in subsequent downstream contracts for goods, works and services in that project, in case the subsequent assignment specific Request for Proposal includes conflict of interest provisions.

The empanelment process is to create a database of potential consultants/entities having experience in preparation and/or evaluation of DPRs in a particular sector. The empanelment of any entity does not endorse an empanelled entity's technical, financial strengths or project execution capabilities nor does it guarantee any preference towards prequalification or award of any prospective contract.

The empanelment is valid for a period of up to 3 years from the date of notification of empanelment by Exim Bank as per the provisions of the Application Document for Continuous Empanelment.

As per the GOI guidelines, goods and services for minimum 75% value of the contracts covered under these Lines of Credit, must be sourced from India. Applicants are advised to refer to the GOI guidelines mentioned above for details available at

Applicants may submit a single application document listing out the sectors (and enumerate the sub-sector, if applicable) that they need to be considered for and accordingly prepare their applications and enclose necessary supporting documents as per the provisions of this Application Document.

A. General

- | | | |
|--------------------------------|-----|--|
| 1. Background | 1.1 | The Export-Import Bank of India (hereinafter called “the Bank”), on behalf of the Government of India (GOI), extends from time-to-time, concessional credit facilities (hereinafter called “Lines of Credit”) under the Indian Development and Economic Assistance Scheme (IDEAS) to overseas governments or their nominated agencies (hereinafter called “Borrower or Employer”), for financing projects to be executed by Indian entities. Payment by the Bank to the Indian exporters will be made only at the request of the Borrower and upon approval by the Bank, and will be subject, in all respects, to the terms and conditions of the credit (or financing) agreement. |
| 2. Scope of Empanelment | 2.1 | With reference to the Invitation for Empanelment (IFE) indicated in Part III, Data Sheet (DS), this Application Document (“Application Document”) is being issued by the Bank to prospective applicants (“Applicants”) interested in submitting applications (“Applications”) for empanelment in various sectors as per the scope described in Part I, General Scope and subject to the provisions of this Application Document. |
| 3. Ethics and Integrity | 3.1 | The Bank requires Applicants to participate in this empanelment process with the highest standards of integrity and ethics and prohibits any corrupt and/or fraudulent practices. It is strictly forbidden to the parties involved in the empanelment process, by themselves or by a third party, to offer, ask or accept for itself or for a third party, financial or non-financial advantage or even direct or indirect promise or any other acts ¹ , as offsets for empanelment, if susceptible of being qualified as criminal unlawful acts in accordance with national laws of any party involved. |
| | 3.2 | In pursuance of article 3.1 above, Applicants shall permit the Bank to inspect all accounts, records and other documents relating to the submission of the Application, and to have them audited by auditors appointed by the Bank. |
| | 3.3 | If, in accordance with the administrative procedures of the Bank, it is demonstrated that an Applicant in this empanelment process, or during the subsequent bidding for the contract(s) has violated the provisions stated in ITA 3.1 above, the Bank, inter alia,
(a) shall reject any Application for empanelment or prequalification or proposal to award a contract in |

¹ These acts shall include, but not limited to, corrupt practice, fraudulent practice, collusive practice, coercive practice, obstructive practice, and conflict of interest.
